DIRECTIVE ON DELIVERY OF JUDGMENTS

1. Judgments not delivered ex tempore immediately upon the finalisation of a hearing shall be handed down in motion court on a Tuesday specified by the Judge concerned. To that end, all efforts shall be made to enrol the matter as a judgment for delivery.
2. In the event that exigencies of the matter require otherwise, judgments not delivered ex tempore or on a Tuesday shall be delivered in open court on any other day, provided that the Judge concerned shall specify the time and date to the parties in writing.
3. In addition, it shall be available to a Judge to transmit to the parties by electronic mail a copy of the judgment in portable document format, after the delivery of the judgment in open court.
4. This Directive is effective from today.
