

CALL FOR PAPERS – SIXTH ISSUE 2024¹

The Editorial Board of the South African Judicial Education Journal (SAJEJ) is pleased to announce the call for papers for the sixth issue of SAJEJ. The Journal is accredited by the Department of Higher Education & Training (DHET), effective from 01st January 2024. The Editorial Board invites articles on topical issues relating to the law and judicial education. However, in celebration of 100 years of women in the legal profession, the Board will be pleased to receive submissions that foreground this important milestone in South Africa.

Contributions may be from members of the Judiciary, Academics, Students, Legal practitioners and others. Contributions should be in the form of articles (8000–10000), notes (5000–8000) and book reviews (500–1000), including footnotes. All articles should be accompanied by an abstract of approximately 250–350 words.

The views expressed by the authors or contributors do not reflect the views of SAJEI and SAJEJ Editorial Board.

The Editorial Board reserves the right to edit articles as it sees fit. Also, all articles are circulated for double blind peer review. The discretion to publish or not to publish vests in the Editorial Board and its decision in this regard is final. When the Editorial Board decides not to publish a contribution, it will provide feedback to the author in brief broad terms. SAJEJ receives contributions on the understanding that authors accept these terms or conditions.

MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The Editorial Board welcomes original manuscript submissions written in English. The format of the article should be 1.5 spacing, font Arial 11, justify and in MS Word.

All submissions should be made online to SAJEJournal@judiciary.org.za. Articles must be original in content. Any idea or quotation from another source must be fully acknowledged. All articles will be checked for originality using Turnitin software. Details of the author/s: title, name, institutional affiliation, email address, postal address and telephone number should be included. All enquiries should be directed to SAJEJournal.Enquiries@judiciary.org.za

¹ Reviewed 11 December 2023.

Prospective author/s are requested to read the Notes for Author/s and Contributors found in <http://www.judiciary.org.za/>, click on the link to SAJEI.

Due date for the submissions of articles is 31st May 2024

Enhancing Judicial Excellence

188 14th Road, Noordwyk, Midrand, 1687
Private Bag X10, Marshalltown, 2000

