CALL FOR PAPERS – FOURTH ISSUE 2021

The Editorial Board of the South African Judicial Education Journal (SAJEJ) is pleased to announce the call for papers for the fourth issue of SAJEJ. The contributions may be from members of the Judiciary, Academics, Students, Legal practitioners and others. The contributions should be in the form of articles, case notes and book reviews.

The views expressed by the authors or contributors do not reflect the views of SAJEI and SAJEJ Editorial Board.

The Editorial Board reserves the right to edit articles as it sees fit. Also, all articles are circulated for double blind peer review. The discretion to publish or not to publish vests in the Editorial Board and its decision in this regard is final. When the Editorial Board decides not to publish a contribution, it will provide feedback to the author in brief broad terms. SAJEJ receives contributions on the understanding that authors accept these terms or conditions.

MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The Editorial Board welcomes original manuscript submissions written in English. The articles should be between 3000 and 5000 words in length including footnotes. All articles should have an abstract of not more than 300 words. The format of the article should be 1.5 spacing, font Arial 11, justify and in MS Word.

All submissions should be made online to SAJEJournal@judiciary.org.za. Articles must be original in content. Any idea or quotation from another source must be fully acknowledged. All articles will be checked for originality using Turnitin software. Details of the author/s: title, name, institutional affiliation, email address, postal address and telephone number should be included.

Prospective author/s are requested to read Notes for Author/s and Contributors found in <http://www.judiciary.org.za/>, click on the link to SAJEI.

Due date for the submissions of articles is 30 April 2021.
