CALL FOR PAPERS –SECOND ISSUE MAY 2018

The South African Judicial Education Institute (SAJEI), Office of the Chief Justice, publishes the South African Judicial Education Journal. The mandate of SAJEI is to provide judicial education to aspiring and serving Judicial officers in order to enhance judicial accountability and transformation of the Judiciary.

The Journal is intended to consist of contributions in the form of articles, case notes and book reviews. The views expressed by the authors or contributors do not reflect the views of SAJEI and Editorial Board. The Editorial Board invites articles on Diversity and Transformation of the Bench for the second issue. The Editorial Board reserves the right to edit articles and circulate for double blind peer review.
