

RESERVED JUDGMENT REPORT FOR THE CHIEF JUSTICE

Reserved Judgments as at the beginning of Term 3 of 2025

RESERVED JUDGMENT REPORT

1. Introduction

1.1 The Judicial norms and standards for the performance on judicial functions provide, in terms of paragraph 5.2.6, that judgments in both civil and criminal matters, should generally not be reserved without a fixed date for handing down. Judicial Officers have a choice to reserve judgments sine die where circumstances are such that the delivery of a judgment on a fixed date is not possible. The norms and standards further determine that save in exceptional cases where it is not possible to do so, every effort shall be made to hand down judgments no later than three (3) months after the last hearing.

1.2 Article 10(2) of the Code of Judicial Conduct adopted in terms of section 12 of the JSC Act, 1994 provides:

“A judge must deliver all reserved judgments before the end of the term in which the hearing of a matter was completed, but may:

- (a) in respect of a matter that was heard within two weeks of the end of that term;
or
- (b) where a reserved judgment is of a complex nature or for any other cogent and sound reason and with the consent of the head of the court, deliver that reserved judgment during the course of the next term.”

1.3 At the meeting held on 28 September 2018, the Heads of Court resolved that a reserved judgments report containing a list of judgments outstanding for more than 6 months at the beginning of the Court Term, will be published on the Judiciary’s website.

2. Reserved Judgments overview during the reporting period

2.1 The 2025, Term 3 sittings of the Constitutional Court, the Supreme Court of Appeal and the Labour Appeal Court commenced on 15 August 2025, whereas the sittings for the High Court, Labour Courts and Land Court commenced from 21 July 2025. Table 1 below provides an overview of the status of reserved judgments as at the beginning of Term 3 of 2025.

2.2 As at the beginning of Term 3 of 2025, a total of 1,657 judgments were reported as reserved. A total of 302 of these judgments, representing an overall 18% of the reserved matters, had been reserved and were outstanding for a period exceeding six (6) months. The remaining 1,355 of these judgments, representing an overall 82%, had been reserved for a period of less than six months. There is an increase of 9 percent (%) in matters reserved for a period exceeding six (6) months compared with that recorded in Term 2 of 2025.

- 2.3 From table 1 below, it can be seen that nationally, out of a total of 1,657 judgments that were indicated as reserved, the Gauteng Division of the High Court, Pretoria with a total of 336 reserved matters, had the highest number of reserved judgments, followed by the Gauteng Local Division of the High Court, Johannesburg with 209, the Labour Court, Johannesburg with 158, the Western Cape Division of the High Court, Cape Town with 111 and the North West Division of High Court, Mahikeng with 107.
- 2.4 It is also noted that in terms of the total number of reserved judgments compared to the number of reserved judgments outstanding for more than six (6) months, the Constitutional Court had the highest proportion of judgments reserved for more than six (6) months, representing 62% (13 out of 21) of all matters at the Constitutional Court. This is followed by the Labour Court, Durban with 46% (31 out of 68) and the Labour Court, Johannesburg with 32% (51 out of 158).
- 2.5 Comparing the statistics of the Superior Courts, it is noted that the highest percentage of reserved judgments, outstanding for more than six (6) months, were in the Gauteng Division of the High Court, Pretoria with a percentage of 18% (55 out of 302 matters), followed by Labour Court, Johannesburg with 17% (51 out of 302 matters) and the Labour Court, Durban with 10% (31 out of 302 matters).
- 2.6 A noteworthy observation from the table below is that there were no judgments reserved for more than six (6) months, in the Labour Appeal Court, Mpumalanga Local Division of the High Court, Middelburg and the Competition Appeal Court.
- 2.7 It is also worth noting that the Electoral Court did not have any reserved judgments.
- 2.8 Table 1 below provides a Superior Courts' status overview on the Reserved Judgments outstanding as at the beginning of Court Term 3 of 2025.
