

You are accordingly advised that as from the 4th November 2024, the Office of the Family Advocate has been evacuated from its office premises at the High Court building.

As a means of continuing to provide service, a "Service Desk", has been set up at the Mbombela Magistrates' Court, on the ground floor, for purposes of submitting and collecting court documents that need the attention of the Office of the Family Advocate.

You are kindly requested to make use of the facilities in this regard. In respect of the current and future appointments already secured/to be secured with the clients, the Office of the Family Advocate is and will continue to make a good attempt to honor the appointments and conduct the requested enquiries/investigations. Further, please take
