MPUMALANGA HIGH COURT MAKES HISTORY

On 13 May 2019, the Mpumalanga Division of the High Court will have the first sitting of the permanent seats of the Division in Mbombela and Middleburg. The Judge President of the Mpumalanga Division of the High Court, Judge Francis Legodi, will preside over the first sitting of the newly built Mpumalanga High Court, in Mbombela. The permanent seats of the Mpumalanga Division signify a historic occurrence, as this will be the first time that every province will have its own provincial seat of the High Court.

The Minister of Justice and Correctional Services, Adv. Michael Masutha, Premier of the Mpumalanga, Ms Refilwe Mtshweni; and stakeholder members of the Provincial Efficiency Enhancement Committee will be in attendance.

Media and members of the public are invited to a walkabout of the Court, and the first sitting as follows:

Date: 13 May 2019

Time: 08h00

Venue: Mpumalanga Division of the High Court, Samora Machel Drive, Mbombela.
