Media Advisory

ZUMA MATTER, 22 NOVEMBER 2019, PIETERMARITZBURG HIGH COURT

Members of the media, public and special interest groups are advised that the Pietermaritzburg High Court will on, 22 November 2019, hear arguments in the application for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court of Appeal by the Thales Group and former President Jacob Zuma.

Please note that there will be no accreditation procedures, however there will be access control measures in place, of which attendees are usually accustomed.

Please be advised that pool video and photography arrangements are still in place.

POOL FEED ARRANGEMENTS: INSIDE THE COURTROOM

Pool video can be obtained from the SABC, please contact Reneé Heine; 031 362 5317; heiner@sabc.co.za.

As with the video feed, there will be a pool system for photographers. Two photographers will be accredited to be inside the courtroom – one local and one international. The photographers are welcome to rotate, however they will not be allowed to rotate during proceedings. We would kindly request the South African National Editors Forum (SANEF) and the Foreign Correspondents Association (FCA) to co-ordinate and submit names of photographers who will form a pool for and provide pictures to the media.
